TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Events are scheduled on a first paid/first scheduled basis. Payment is due with receipt of a completed Event Request Form.
- Events can be scheduled on either weekdays or weekends. Due to the limited number of weekend event time slots available, it is recommended that you reserve your event time slot early.
- A confirmation number will be issued upon receipt of a completed party request form and payment. Use this number when corresponding about your event. Your event is not formally scheduled until you receive a confirmation number from us.
- The antique fire trucks used for these events are actual antiques. As such, they have dents and scratches and are not always mechanically dependable. Antique Fire Truck Parties reserves the right to select the antique fire truck for use at your event.
- You must notify us 3 hours before we are to appear if you want to cancel and reschedule due to weather, sickness, etc. We will work with you to reschedule within a reasonable time frame.
- You must notify us three days before your scheduled event if you want to cancel completely. Upon receiving notification, we will refund eighty percent (80%) of any prepaid fee.
- The entire event fee is transferable to offset the cost of another event and/or activities.
- Antique Fire Truck Parties' whole liability for service(s) provided is limited to the amount of the event fee.

Yes, I would like to schedule an Antique Fire Truck event as indicated above. I have read and understand the attached Terms and Conditions, and agree with same as presented.
